

BECOME A PARK INVESTIGATOR

Follow the trail, find the answers to the questions and you become a Park Investigator with an official certificate and a prize.

1. The tall wooden sculpture on the corner of Denby Dale Road with Thornes Road was designed to represent what type of vegetable?

Answer R _____ (Clue - look in Ticket Office window)

2. This is the smallest of the three Parks and has been open to the public for exactly one hundred years this year. It is called H _____ Park.

3. The horse drinking trough was dedicated to Ann Clarkson in 18__

4. These long, funny shaped boxes high in the Chestnut Trees are used by B _____

5. The new, blue turntable at the miniature railway is used for turning T _____ in the opposite direction.

6. On display in the Secret Garden are many historic features. Near the stone bench can be found part of the stone columns from the old. M _____ C _____.

7. In the Victorian Pets Cemetery, the largest stone is for the smallest animal, My M _____.

8. How many storks guard the entrance to the Rose Garden _

9. What should you not feed to the ducks. Answer B _____

10. You enter through the jawbones of a whale to get to the B _____ G _____

